

Prof Carlo Barbante, appointed Co-editor in chief of Climate of the Past

EGU council recently appointed Professor Carlo Barbante as Co-Editor in Chief of Climate of the Past to replace Prof. Eric Wolff who will step down in 2012 from his position of CP co-editor in chief. Prof. Barbante is a well renown scientist who will continue on Prof. Wolff's tracks providing his expertise about ice-cores studies among many fields.

The present co-editors in chief of Climate of the Past are very pleased to have Prof. Barbante on board and are excited to collaborate with him, wishing him a sincere success with us.

So welcome Carlo!
