

Valérie Masson-Delmotte received 2013 Irene Joliot-Curie Prize for Scientific Woman of the Year

Our colleague, Dr. Valérie Masson-Delmotte, one of the coordinating lead authors of the Working Group I contribution to the IPCC Fifth Assessment Report (WGI AR5), is the recipient of the 2013 Irene Joliot-Curie Prize for scientific woman of the year. This award aims at promoting the role of women in research and technology in France. It has been awarded for over 10 years by the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research and EADS Group.

The CP Editors-in-Chief congratulate Valérie Masson-Delmotte and are proud to have such a distinguished colleague on board the CP editorial board.
