

Gerrit Lohmann, CP editor, elected as new president for EGU Climate Division

The European Geosciences Union announced the election of the new Divisions president of EGU. Gerrit Lohmann, one of our editors, was elected and is presently operating as the new President of the Climate: Past, Present and Future Division.

The co-chief editors of Climate of the Past are proud to have such a distinguished scientist on board of Climate of the Past and warmly congratulate him.