

Joel Guiot, CP editor, CNRS silver medalist

The French CNRS, National Center for Scientific Research, released the names of its Silver medal awardees 2005. Among them is Joel Guiot of CEREGE, France, who is well known for his quantitative reconstructions of past climates parameters.

The European Geosciences Union (EGU) and the editors in chief of Climate of the Past are proud to have such a distinguished scientist on the editorial board of Climate of the Past and warmly congratulate him.